VINTAGE 2013

Weather conditions during harvest were optimal, what was favorable for the elaboration of wines with a good typicity. The ripening phase was a little longer than usual, what resulted in an ideal fruit quality.

COMPOSITION

Varietal: Petit Verdot 100%

WINEMAKING

Grapes were manually harvested during the last week in April. The fruit was taken to the winery where berries and bunches were selected according to their quality to undergo afterwards a pre-fermentation cold maceration. Indigenous yeasts triggered fermentation and grapes were micro vinified. Extraction procedures (pigeage) were manually done to preserve the most delicate aromas and flavors of the grapes.

BARREL AGING AND AGING POTENTIAL IN BOTTLE

Barrel aging: 12 months in new French oak barrels.

Potential: more than 10 years.
